Hospital Peer Review
1993 Index

Academy on Physician and Patient formed in Baltimore, JUL:120 Adoptions
plan for discharge planning, OCT:162 Agency for Health Care Policy and Research releases depression guidelines, MAY:81 seeks input on guidelines, NOV:184 study shows heart attack misdiagnoses, SEP:151 to update cost/utilization projects, MAY:84 American Hospital Association working with Congress on physician referrals, OCT:166 American Medical Peer Review Association calls for oversight in reform, MAY:83 Baschon, Sharon
don't be run over by case management, OCT:161 recommends focused UR, FEB:22
UR essential with managed care, FEB:25
Case management
Baptist Memorial's system, JUN:88 help guide it, OCT:161
nursing paths being shelved, APR:49 patients are at center, JUN:85 stresses discipline integration, JUN:88 Change
promoting stress, threatening chaos, OCT:153 Clinical Data Abstraction Centers two still scheduled, NOV:179
Clinical guidelines
AHCPR issues for depression, MAY:81 government to release more, MAR:47 Computerized patient records
HFMA proposes standards law, JUN:93 Confidentiality policy needed in QM department, MAR:45 Consumer groups not mollified by unannounced surveys, MAR:33 Continuous quality improvement apply to traditional committees, JUL:116 bringing QA coordinators out of basement, JAN:15 first QI/TQM conference set, FEB:32 governing board should collaborate, FEB:30 hospital leadership must support, NOV:179 may increase hospitals' legal headaches, JUN:95 opening avenues for UR impact, OCT:167 quick fixes may be necessary, AUG:129 Critical paths claimed the ultimate in UR, JAN:5
development is team effort, DEC:196 leads to shared discharge planning, OCT:159 nursing paths being abandoned, APR:49
patients are at center, JUN:85 Discharge planning adult day centers seek recognition, JUL:114 creative solutions for Medicare, APR:55 DME regional carriers reduced, APR:56 expanded AIDS definition mixed blessing, JAN:7
expediter frees up case workers, APR:61 fusion therapy indicators near, APR:48 home IV coverage reduced, OCT:166 hospital sends planners home with patients, JAN:9 Joint Commission delays standards changes, OCT:166 leading to case management, OCT:161 marketing fair instituted, JUL:107 new DME rule a two-edged sword, APR:60 outcomes surveys used, JUL:109 preadmission screens inadequate, JUL:112 real estate firm offers help, JAN:14 reform requires change in individuals, JAN:12 shared with critical pathways, OCT:159 software for aftercare instructions, JAN:14 survey provides snapshot of profession, JAN:10 Goodwin, Susan
says unannounced surveys no threat to most, MAR:34 Gosfield, Alice
says pressure brought unannounced surveys, MAR:33 Health Care Financing Administration abolishes PRO point system, JUL:105 criticism for mortality data ban, SEP:144 data from CCP to be troubling, SEP:137 delay of mortality data praised, AUG:133 praised for delaying mortality rate release, AUG:133 sanctions two laboratories, JUN:100 using patient survey as quality measure, SEP:140
Health Care Quality Improvement* Act accused of bogging down peer review, JAN:2 courts limit immunity provisions, MAY:69 defended by AHA counsel, JAN:1 suggestion for overcoming legal wrangling, JAN:3
Healthcare Quality Certification Board
QI-oriented test gives good results, MAY:81 Healthcare Financial Management Association releases draft of computer standards law, JUN:93 Indicators
HCFA delay of mortality rates praised, AUG:133
HCFA, private payers using patient surveys, SEP:140 Jencks, Stephen
defends mortality data delay, SEP:144 says CCP shows heart attack care not very good, SEP:137 Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations challenging hospitals on educational plan, OCT:169 delays changes in discharge planning standards, OCT:166

Need back issues? Call our order department at (800) 688-2421; inside Georgia (404) 262-7436.
Copyright © 1993 American Health Consultants Inc. Editor: Warren Causey future in doubt under reform, DEC:189 gearing up for network accreditation, JUL:101 hikes fees, makes special assessment, FEB:32 making series of concessions, MAY:74 might be eliminated under Clinton plan, NOV:175 offers pre-survey scoring software, MAY:83 preparing for a survey, JUL:115 quality requires surpassing standards, JUN:97 releases scoring rules, APR:68 requires CQI, database in 1994 AMH, OCT:156 Roberts leaves, Schyve, Jessee promoted, JUN:99 study suggests standards/financial relationship, JUN:99 tightens smoking policy, MAR:47 to release individual hospital data, JUL:103 unannounced surveys evaluated, MAR:33 Leadership
disagree on roles, relationships, NOV:183 must be committed for CQI to work, NOV:179 Managed care
get ready now, FEB:24
spurred by Clinton initiative, AUG:136 Maronde, Janet
HQCB accepts all backgrounds, FEB:27 Medical staff chiefs must be more active in quality, SEP:148 college formed in Atlanta, SEP:151 conflicts with reform, integration, DEC:187 may be doomed, DEC:185
more departments combined with QA, SEP:146 recruiters focusing on primary care, SEP:151 MediQual Systems Inc.
claims improved mortality prediction, JAN:19 Mortality data
HCFA delay praised by hospitals, AUG:133
National Association for Healthcare Quality sponsors quality week, SEP:151 National Committee for Quality Assurance gets jump in network accreditation race, JUL:101 National Quality Management Program established in Clinton bill, DEC:191
National Practitioner Data Bank
Congressman wants data made public, AUG:135 GAO criticizes again, APR:53 getting bad rap, AHA counsel says, JAN:1
offers free software, APR:63 revises fees to encourage computers, JUN:92 threshold lost in bureaucracy, transition MAR:35 Outcomes management
MediQual claims improved mortality prediction, JAN:19 tests of system encouraging, FEB:27 Patient-focused care patient-designed hospital opens, JAN:19 Peer review
bogging down in HCQIA, lawyer says, JAN:2
doctor wins access to documents, JUL:120 suggestion for speeding, JAN:3 Peer Review Organizations data from CCP troubling, SEP:137 Clinton plan calls for elimination, NOV:176 turmoil expected, MAR:42 sanction referrals down, MAR:43 Practice guidelines
government to release more this year, MAR:47 Quality assurance
CQI bringing out of basement, JAN:15
Maryland accepts computerized summary, MAY:72 pharmaceutical company helps with data, MAR:40 traditional roles, functions likely to remain, AUG:121 Quality management adverse occurrences must be integrated, AUG:125 competition for jobs heating up, FEB:25 tracking patient complaints important, AUG:123 Reform
AMPRA urges QA be considered, MAY:83
Clinton plan would nationalize quality, NOV:173 managed care to do well, APR:52 to increase data demands, JUL:101 will change UR, DEC:194 Risk management
must be tied to QM hospital-wide, JAN:17 Rothschild, Ila
claims data bank getting bad rap, JAN:1
immunity rulings muddy the water, MAY:70 Simmons, John C. reform calls for individual changes, JAN:12 Simpson, Harold right to immunity not lost, MAY:71 says HCQIA bogging down peer review, JAN:2 says threshold issue has little substance, MAR:35 Spath, Patrice L. apply CQI to traditional committees, JUL:116 concurrent review for drug reaction reporting, APR:65 define educational plan, OCT:169 guide to critical paths, DEC:196 hospital leadership must be active in CQI, NOV:179 information skills key to future in QM, FEB:25 make board a QI collaborator, FEB:30 medical staff chiefs must take part in quality, SEP:148 QM department needs confidentiality policy, MAR:45 quality means exceeding Joint Commission standards, JUN:97 quick fixes while you wait for CQI, AUG:129 risk management must be tied to QM, JAN:17
UM committee can use QI, MAY:76
Technology
firm will pre-review cases, APR:63
Total quality management
American Health Consultants sets conference, FEB:32 Uniform Clinical Data Sets future unclear under Clinton plan, NOV:179 Utilization management computerization key to survival, AUG:128 computerized chart summary recognized, MAY:72 essential with managed care, FEB:25 focused review is secret, FEB:21 third-party guidelines developed, MAR:36
UM committee can use QI, MAY:76
would change under reform, DEC:194